The Art of Belgian Lace

Lace, that gossamer embellishment on nature's cobweb, has always exerted an irrestible attraction. Belgium, where bobbin lace began, was and still remains famous for its lace. Brugge has remained the center of the industry and in the past four centuries the tools and working methods have undergone very little change.

Bobbin lace is woven over stiff parchment on which the pattern is marked. The number of threaded bobbins varies from 4 to 1200 or more. Bobbin lace, worked on cushions 7 inches thick, is divided into Straight Lace (executed on a square cushion with a particular number of bobbins), and Free Lace (executed on a round cushion where the number of bobbins varies with the work).

Just as in olden times the lacemakers of Brugge can be seen sitting at their doorsteps, in picturesque little streets. Engrossed in their work, they safeguard one of the artistic heritages and touristic attractions of Flanders, the art of Belgian lace. SABENA Belgian World Airlines' jets fly to Brussels daily from New York, and Brugge is just 61 miles from Brussels.

Re-elect Governor Rockefeller

Question Is Just Who Can Do More

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—If Arkansans do what Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and Democrat Dale Bumpers have asked of them, they will vote Tuesday solely on the basis of who they feel will do more for the state.

Each gubernatorial nominee has said at one time or another that the major issue in the race is who will do more for Arkansas. One of the Rockefeller campaign slogans, in fact, is that he "will do more for Arkansas."

Bumpers has said repeatedly on the campaign trail, "Even if my opponent and I agreed on every issue, perhaps the overriding issue would be whose judgment can you best trust to do the most for the state, to work the hardest for you."

Bumpers poses a third question: Who can solve the legislative impasse that he says has developed between Rockefeller and the Genearl Assembly?

The race has been befuddling. Rockefeller says Bumpers is not coming to grips with the issues. Bumpers claims he is facing the issues like no other candidate for governor ever has.

Rockefeller says Bumpers is not offering solutions to state problems. Bumpers says he does not pretend to be a soothsayer with solutions to all problems, but that he has answers for some of them.

Rockefeller said from the outset that he would run on the program of his two-term administration and that the decision for the voters was whether he and Bumpers could improve on it.

Bumpers has asked "What program?" and has largely declined to attack whatever of it he might consider there is.

Rockefeller says Bumpers is trying to win office with charisma—"a smile, a shoeshine and one speech." Bumpers implies that the governor is trying to buy the election.

Perhaps the dominant issue to have arisen in the race is Rockefeller's campaign expenditures. But how much the governor or Bumpers spends still is not a gauge by which the voter can decide whom is the better candidate to support.

One of the chief differences between the two is their positions on new taxes. Rockefeller says tax increases are "absolutely inevitable."

Bumpers says he would seek new taxes from the legislature next year if economy in government and the state's natural growth rate did not provide needed funds. The governor has said the cost of things Bumpers has talked about in the campaign would make the administration's $90 million tax program last year "look like chicken feed."

But there have been no fireworks in the campaign. Political observers rate the race duller than the primary fights.

Perhaps part of the reason is that Rockefeller and his challenger hold similar positions on a variety of topics and that one candidate's issue mignt not be another's.

Each opposes busing students to achieve racial balance. Each promises to continue prison reform, with Bumpers admitting that his views on the subject are close to the plan offered by the administration. Each endorses the proposed new state constitution.

Both name education as a priority item. Rockefeller says he is proud of his record on education, but that the state must do more. Bumpers says the governor has not done enough and is claiming credit that is not due him.

Each tells the voters that the state must do a better job of promoting tourism. Both candidates say state roads need improving. Rockefeller has proposed a $200 million bond issue to do it. Bumpers has reserved an opinion on the proposal.

Each calls for law and order, with Rockefeller saying that his administration has kept racial tranquility. Each supports the right to dissent. Both say they would arm National Guardsmen with live ammunition if troops are called in because of campus unrest.

Rockefeller talks of his administration's hiring of Negroes. Bumpers says blacks would have a place in his administration.

One of Bumpers' chief campaign topics, an issue he says, is a need for improving the availability of medical services in rural areas. This is Bumpers' issue, not Rockefeller's. The governor has not addressed himself to it.

Bumpers has made an issue of Rockefeller's absences from office. The governor does not feel it is an issue because, he says, the office is where he is and he is often away from the Capitol on an errand of the state.

To Rockefeller, an issue is that Bumpers is inexperienced in government. Bumpers has not confronted the accusation on the stump, but his campaign advertising says he is experienced in governmental and legal affairs.

He has been a member of the Charleston School Board and, as the only lawyer in town, the city attorney.

WHAT'S THIS?

This looks like a dramatic shot of a cactus plant or, perhaps, a weed. Guess again for it's neither. It's actually a greatly enlarged likeness of a mosquito's antenna, as photographed by the scanning electron microscope in the Johnson Wax research laboratory.

Animal Use in Movies, Denounced

By GENE HANDSAKER
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The American Humane Association has classified eight movies including "Soldier Blue" and "Patton" as unacceptable because of the treatment of animals used in them.

Other films rated unacceptable Thursday in the first list issued since the association's recent announcement of its rating system are "El Condor," "Macho Callahan," "Mondo Cane," "Valdez Is Coming," "Trail of the Hunter" and "The Outdoorsmen."

"The constant abuse, mishandling and cruelty to animals in foreign productions and by some producers in the United States is what necessitated a rating system," said Harold Melniker, director of the association's Hollywood office.

The films objected to were produced chiefly in Spain or Mexico, Melniker said.

"In 'Soldier Blue,'" he told a reporter, "we feel horses were mistreated, particularly in a frightful scene of an attack on an Indian village by the U.S. cavalry at the end of the picture. You see horses going down on their heads with what seems to be great likelihood of injury.

"In 'Patton,' we were informed that two donkeys were given lethal injections and killed for the bridge-crossing scene. This is unconscionable. There are so many ways such action can be simulated."

Melniker said it's "quite obvious on the screen" that "El Condor" used invisible wires to trip running horses—so-called "running W" device discontinued in Hollywood after the humane association opened an office here in 1940.

He said "Macho Callahan" had "a cockfight with what looks like the actual killing of birds, and the actual killing of a buffalo."

He said "Mondo Cane" showed "frightful treatment of animals, supposedly actual treatment in various countries, but this is commercializing cruelty."

"Valdez Is Coming" apparently used the running-W to trip horses, Melniker said, and "Trail of the Hunter" and "The Outdoorsmen" showed hunters shooting mountain goats, bighorn sheep, moose, deer, antelope and bears.

"We don't oppose legitimate hunting, but we protest the killing of animals when it's done for entertainment purposes," Melniker said.

A spokesman for 20th Century-Fox, which produced "Patton," declined comment.

A spokesman for Avco Embassy, which released "Soldier Blue" and "Macho Callahan," both filmed in Mexico, said:

"We're well aware of the regulations on use of animals in motion pictures and always abide by them. To the best of our knowledge no animals was injured on either film."

Funeral Home Takeover

OTTAWA (AP) — Noting reports that 23 Canadian funeral companies had been taken over by American firms, Stanley Knowles of Winnipeg asked in the House of Commons: "Is the government looking into the matter in the hope that Canadians will at least be buried by Canadians?"

A government minister said it was investigating and Knowles, an opposition member, inquired whether the investigation would be completed "in time for the burial of the government in 1972."

Presidential Boards have all found that a four-man crew is adequate for railroad safety...

EISENHOWER

and yet only Arkansas requires a six-man crew on trains.

Impartial boards serving under Presidents Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson and Nixon all ruled that the addition of a fireman to a train crew does not result in greater safety.

The head brakeman performs the same lookout function. Impartial boards also ruled that three brakemen are not required for safe operation. Only Arkansas requires three brakemen and only Arkansas requires that a train crew consist of six men.

Safety is not a factor. The railroads and the unions have agreed that smaller crews are safe. Yet these horse-and-buggy laws prohibit Arkansas railroads from operating under these agreements.

Even after these out-dated laws are repealed, two men will ride in the cab of the engine at all times to assure a safe and adequate lookout ahead.

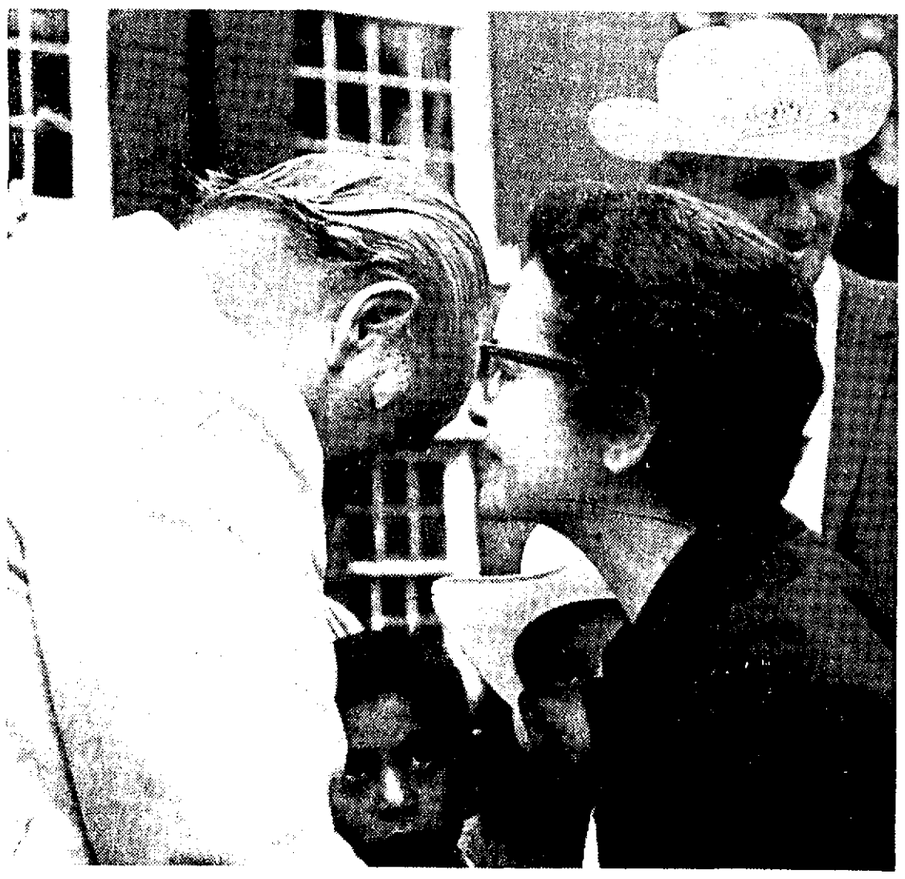

Keep Arkansas moving ahead. Get our State up-to-date in railroad operations. Let Arkansas railroads by agreement with their employees' unions determine the size of train crews, as they do in nearly all other states.

This is 1970 . . . not 1907.

Milk Firm to Revise Its Ad Claims

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carnation Co. has promised federal officials it will no longer advertise its "Instant Breakfast" as equal in nutrition to eggs, bacon, toast and orange juice.

Carnation, charged by the Federal Trade Commission with false advertising, made the promise formal in a consent order provisionally accepted today by the FTC.

Final action on the order, containing terms drawn up by FTC staff members, must wait 30 days for public comment.

The complaint that accompanied the order challenged claims made in Carnation's newspaper, magazine, radio and television advertising.

The FTC said the advertisements falsely implied that Carnation Instant Breakfast had as much nutritional benefit as a breakfast of two fresh eggs, two slices of bacon, two slices of buttered toast and an orange or glass of orange juice.

The advertisements, the complaint said, suggested regular use of Instant Breakfast was a good nutritional practice when, in fact, "for good nutrition persons should eat a variety of foods."

Acceptance of the order by Carnation does not constitute an admission of guilt to the charges; rather, it means the company will make no further use of the claims specified in the complaint.

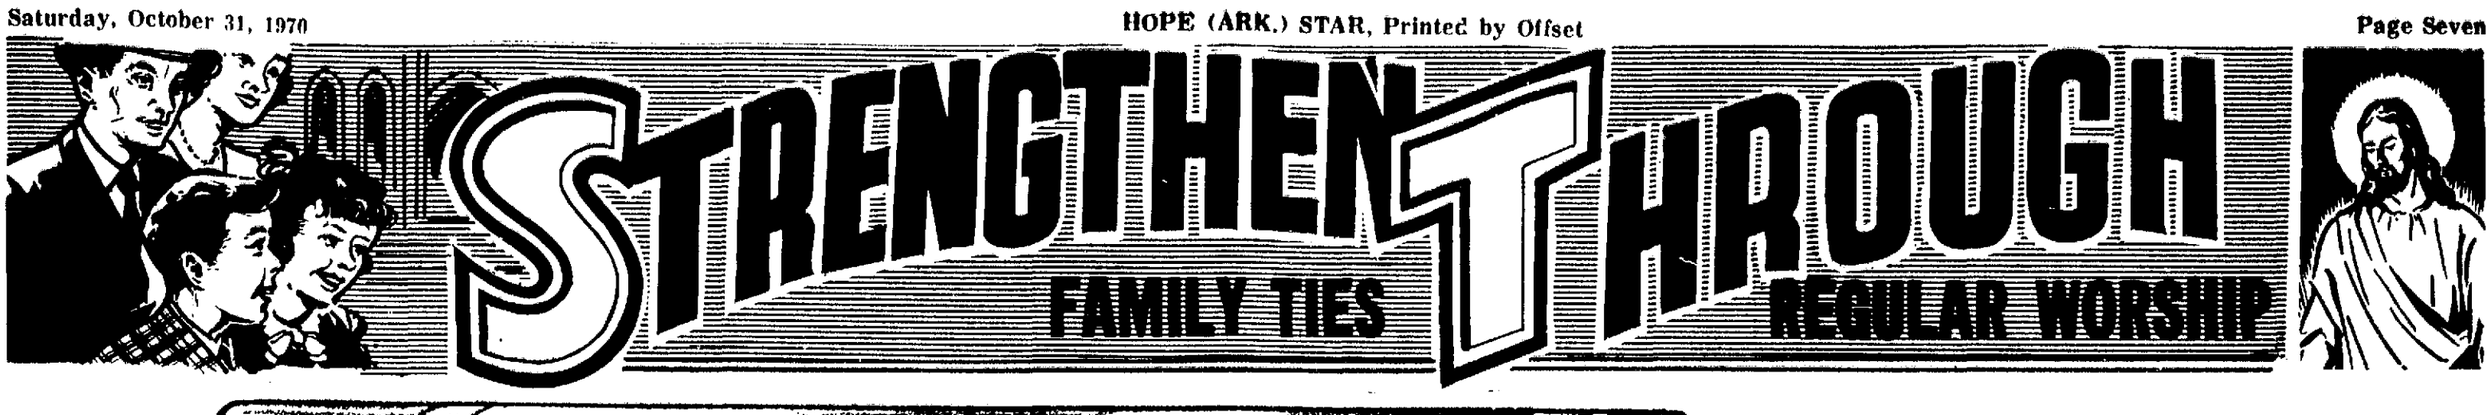

Captain Won't Ride in Parade

SANTA ANA, Calif. (AP) — Army Capt. Ernest L. Medina, a defendant in the alleged My Lai massacre, won't be riding as honorary grand marshal in a Veterans Day parade here next month after all, says the parade chairman.

Paul Balch said Wednesday the invitation which he had personally extended to Medina was withdrawn because of numerous phone calls threatening protests Nov. 8.

Medina, commander of the company which made a sweep through My Lai in March 1968, is stationed at Ft. McPherson, Ga. awaiting trial.

WHAT a tragic figure this man makes! But he never intended to make this picture. The first mile of this road did not look like this. But a great Teacher in the long ago warned him and us that we must choose the path on which we enter. There is one way that looks hard at the first but it "leads to life, and those who find it are few." So many are attracted to 'the other way' that is easy at first, but it leads to destruction, and those who enter it are many.

HOW necessary that we older folk shall guide wisely the young feet! Shall I "go to heaven" as the goal of my living? Look at my feet this very moment. Which way are they pointing? "Heaven is being on the way to heaven" and heavenly people are journeying there together now. Will my "last mile" be one of pathetic regrets and of sorrowful steps? Shall I leave grief and sorrow in the hearts of those who love me? Now is the time to answer that question. For "Despair is being on the way to despair." Which way did our feet move yesterday? What is the goal we have set before us this day? Your Church Can Help You.

THE last drink will not destroy us, if we had not taken the first. The 'last mile' of hatred and malice will not come to us if we do not allow unkindness and jealousy and envy to creep along with us through the first miles. The end of the way will not be vulgar and vicious unless we have forsaken the path of decency and of integrity further back. Every one of us is choosing this day the road we shall take. "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" and do His will. May this be our resolve today.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Meany Sees No Upturn in Economy

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — "There is no economic upturn in sight. There hasn't been an improvement, and there is no indication there is going to be an improvement."

These are the words of AFL-CIO President George Meany, but it may be speculated that they reflect the growing feelings of millions of Americans as some of the economic statistics signal stormy weather.

And, the timing being what it is, the low state of economic activity is bound to be reflected at the polls, perhaps to a far greater degree than anybody suspected just a month ago.

Some of the more optimistic statements made by administration officials a couple of months ago are now being undermined by the facts, which of course include the unfortunate General Motors strike.

The latest index of economic indicators, which point to future economic activity, fell during September, meaning that the economy is likely to be sluggish for months to come.

The wholesale price index leveled off, but the overall figure hid a very sharp rise in the price of industrial commodities, which means continued upward pressure on the price of many manufactured goods.

And although the latest figures on unemployment may not be released until after the elections, it is felt by many business economists here that joblessness is still on the rise and may reach 6 per cent.

One indicator of future employment, the "help-wanted advertising index," compiled by the Conference Board from ads in 52 newspapers, fell last month for the seventh straight time and now is at its lowest since August 1965. It reads 162, based on 1957-1959 equalling 100.

The misfortune for the Nixon administration is that it may argue that the situation is coming under control, but its arguments are understood more by professional economists than ordinary voters.

Paul McCracken, the President's chief economic adviser, can point to rising productivity as a hopeful sign, because any rise in output per manhour tends to reduce the upward pressure on prices.

Truly, a gain in this area was one of the most sought after goals of the administration. It is one of the most significant indications that inflation is being successfully attacked.

But there is no question at all that the promising forecast contained in this statistic carries not one-tenth the weight among the populace as the dismal outlook contained in the unemployment figures.

The administration can also argue that the General Motors strike hides the real advances toward stability, but ordinary people at election time aren't so impressed by promises as they are by existing conditions.

Russia Takes Steps to End Hijackings

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet airline Aeroflot is taking "serious precautionary measures" against hijackers and other persons who might board planes "with criminal intent," the Civil Aviation Ministry reported today.

Alexander Besedin, chief of the ministry's external relations department, told the magazine New Times that "appropriate control has been organized at Soviet airports" to prevent more hijackings. He did not say what the new measures were.

Besden said Soviet officials expect that "the Turkish authorities will hand over to the Soviet judiciary the criminal offenders." He made no mention of a second successful hijacking of a Soviet plane, by two students on Oct. 12. They commandeered a small air taxi with one other passenger and the pilot aboard and also went to the Turkish coast, to Sinop.

No one was hurt in that hijacking. The students have also requested asylum, but the Turkish government has not ruled on their request or the Lithuanians'.

Goodbody to Get Brokerage Firm Funds

By CAROLE MARTIN
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Merrill Lynch, Pierce Fenner & Smith, the nation's largest brokerage house, said today it has signed an agreement that may lead to an infusion of some $15 million into Goodbody & Co. the nation's fifth largest brokerage firm.

"Merill Lynch's entry into this difficult affair is primarily because of its concern over the 225,000 Goodbody customers," said the announcement by James E. Thomson, Merrill Lynch chairman, and Donald T. Regan, president.

"Merrill Lynch is convinced that without its immediate intervention those customers would face financial jeopardy," they said.

Further, the repercussions of the immediate liquidation of Goodbody might have seriously damaging consequences to the whole financial community and might hamper the orderly functioning of the nation's capital markets," Thomson and Regan added.

"Following a request of the New York Stock Exchange, therefore, Merrill Lynch is negotiating the possibility of infusing approximately $15 million into Goodbody.

The Securities and Exchange Commission said Monday that the New York Stock Exchange had threatened Goodbody with expulsion if it did not raise additional capital by Nov. 5.

In Washington Wednesday, the Justice Department's antitrust division hinted it would not interfere in a takeover of the ailing Goodbody operation if no other path to salvaging the securities concern was open.

Merrill Lynch said the negotiations, involving the owners of Goodbody, and the New York Stock Exchange, are expected to be completed before Nov. 5.

Goodbody has 90 branch offices.

The exchange issued a statement Wednesday saying that negotiations between Goodbody and Utilities and Industries Corp., a holding company which previously announced tentative plans to invest some $15 million in Goodbody, had hit a snag.

Youth Poll Favors Mr. Bumpers

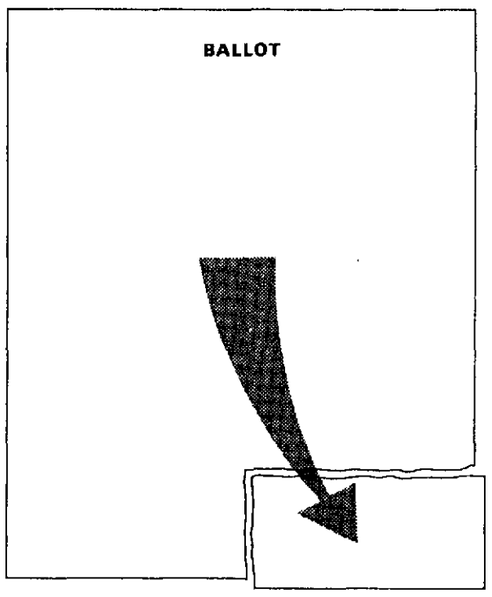

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Governor's Youth Council, set up by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller to give young people a voice in state government, reported Wednesday that a mock election involving 32.5 per cent of the high schools and colleges in Arkansas showed one of Rockefeller's foes favored in the gubernatorial race.

The beneficiary was Dale Bumpers, the Democratic party nominee for governor. The rest of the Democratic party slate and the proposed new constitution also were recipients of majority support from those participating in the mock election.

Pat Harding Jr., executive director of the council, said the election results covered 62 high schools and three colleges who responded to the council-conducted survey by last Friday.

The results gave Bumpers 9,951 votes, Rockefeller 3,522 in his bid for a third term, and American party nominee Walter Carruth 314.

Tuesday is judgment day.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

YOUTH ASKED FOR IT!

This column is for young people, their problems and pleasures, their troubles and fun. As with the rest of Helen Help Us!, it welcomes laughs but won't dodge a serious question with a brush-off.

Send your teenage questions to YOUTH ASKED for it, care of Helen Help Us! this newspaper.

MOTHERS ARE NICE GUYS. . . .CONTINUED

Dear Helen:

I read something last month in your column that I haven't seen in print for a long time: Something good about mothers and fathers!

I completely agree with "L.B., Age 13" who thinks her parents are great. There aren't many teen-agers I know who would say that.

A good relationship between the generations means understanding on both sides, and that takes time as well as lots of love. Kids who can really talk with their folks usually listen to them too—and so their troubles don't get too big to handle.

My mother says the secret of raising teen-agers is to be neither wholly friend or wholly parent, but to be a FRIENDLY PARENT. Following this line, she has raised a —FRIENDLY DAUGHTER

Dear Helen:

You asked "Where did family communication go?" (When so many young people take their troubles to columnists rather than to parents).

Perhaps I can give you one clue.

Family communication goes when one teen-ager tells another, "Don't be a square. . .Don't tell your parents anything! They're the Establishment. Spill your problems to your friends. . .They It's always "Rap with friends—never parents or "pigs." They advise!

That's where OUR family communication went when our teen-ager began communicating with "friends."

Who needs enemies with "friends" like these? —A PARENT WHO LOST

Dear Helen:

I was looking in the desk for some stationery when I came across a letter my mother had started but never mailed. Honest, I wasn't snooping, but won't tell anyone over 21!"

Teen "friends" never squeal to a parent that a friend or relative is on drugs—and just might happen to die from an overdose. "Never tell the Establishment anything!" Thus, teen-agers help the dumb, drug-addicted dodo to die, maybe!

Teen "friends" never squeal to a parent where the runaway might be going. "Never tell the Establishment anything!" Thus teen-agers help the runaway into, perhaps, a life of prostitution or crime, or drifting. when "Dearest Joe" popped out at me from the paper, I couldn't help reading on.

You see, Joe is our best friend, and so is his wife. Ever since Dad died, they've been like brother and sister to Mom and second parents to me.

Mom's letter to Joe wasn't sisterly. It told how guilty she felt about loving him and we were going to move away because she couldn't trust herself, and a lot more.

If she didn't send the letter, does this mean everything is blown over? I couldn't tell whether Joe felt this way about her, from what she said, and they act the same as they always did—just good friends. The letter was dated September 15, so it's over a month old.

Should I mention it to her, or forget it? —THE WORRIER

Dear Worrier:

Forget it! I think that letter may have been written as therapy for a lonely woman who sometimes mistakes gratitude for love. That it was never sent indicates the therapy worked! —H.

Conviction of McCarthy Set Aside

By THOMAS BRADY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A pathologist's second thoughts about his testimony have led an Army review court to set aside the murder conviction of a Special Forces captain in the slaying of a Cambodian national.

The Cambodian was said to have worked for the Green Berets in Vietnam. Testimony indicated he was shot because he knew too much about sensitive Special Forces operations.

Now the Army must decide whether to accept a majority opinion of the court that "a new trial may be ordered" for Capt. John J. McCarthy, 27.

"This is a great day," McCarthy said when he learned of the court's decision Thursday.

McCarthy, father of three and a Boston native, said at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz., "Those who have been close to me, especially my family, have believed in me and my innocence throughout this entire episode. It shows what a little faith can do"

The Army Court of Military Review unanimously set aside the murder conviction and sentence in the November 1967 slaying of Inchin Hai Lam, but two of three judges said McCarthy may stand trial again in a new, closed-door session. One judge wanted the murder charges dismissed entirely.

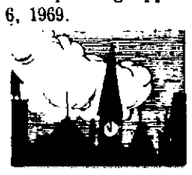

The majority opinion cited newly discovered evidence for its action. An 11-page opinion said an Army pathologist testified at McCarthy's court-martial that the Cambodian died of a "contact" wound from a small-caliber weapon.

But it quoted him as saying he later reviewed McCarthy's testimony and concluded he was wrong about the caliber of the death weapon and the nature of the wound.

The majority opinion, by Col. Winchester Kelso Jr. and Col. Rodney J. Collins, said the pathologist's "unrefuted testimony that the fatal wound was a contact wound precluded the court members from considering a lesser included offense predicated upon negligence."

The "newly discovered evidence will probably cause another court-martial to reach a different result," it added.

A closed court-martial on Jan. 30, 1968, convicted McCarthy of premeditated murder and sentenced him to life imprisonment at hard labor. The sentence was reduced to 24 years and he has been free pending appeal since Oct. 6, 1969.

Turkey Not Bowing to Red Demands

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — President Cevdet Sunay has sent a message to President Nikolai V. Podgorny indicating Turkey is not bowing to Russian demands to return two Lithuanian hijackers.

Sunay told Podgorny that the matter of the Lithuanians is in the courts and will be solved according to Turkish law, the Foreign Ministry said today.

The lithuanians hijacked a Soviet airliner to Turkey Oct. 15, killing a stewardess. In a preliminary decision a Turkish judge ruled their crime was political. Under Turkish law persons committing political crimes cannot be extradited.

The matter will now go to a higher court. The Russians have submitted a detailed document accusing the Lithuanians of a variety of crimes in the Soviet Union.

Sunay's message was delivered to the Soviet Embassy after a meeting of top leaders Thursday night.

In the message he said he hoped the current complications over a stray plane and two hijackings would not poison Turkish-Russian good neighborly relations.

Informed sources said Sunay asked for information on the case of the Lithuanians as well as two other incidents:

—A small U.S. Army plane that strayed into Soviet Armenia 21 carrying two American generals, a pilot and a Turkish colonel. Turkey is pressing to secure the release of the colonel.

—Another hijacking last Tuesday in which two Soviet students forced a small air taxi to fly to Sinop on the Turkish Black Sea coast.

U.S. Envoys Set Off for SALT Talks

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. envoys set off today for Helsinki and round 3 of the year-old talks with the Soviet Union on curbing the superpower arms race.

The six-man delegation headed by U.S. disarmament negotiator Gerard Smith is hoping for progress in the talks before the expected Christmas recess but the delegates are not predicting a U.S.-Soviet arms cut agreement by then.

The big question as the Helsinki round opens Nov. 2 will be how the Soviets respond to a U.S. offer made last July just before the strategic arms limitation talks—SALT—recessed in Vienna.

The American offer proposes:

An over-all ceiling on numbers of long-range missiles held by both sides, at approximately their present totals; a specific limit on the number of big nuclear rockets such as the Soviet SS9; and abolishing antiballistic missiles or limiting them to defense of a national command site.

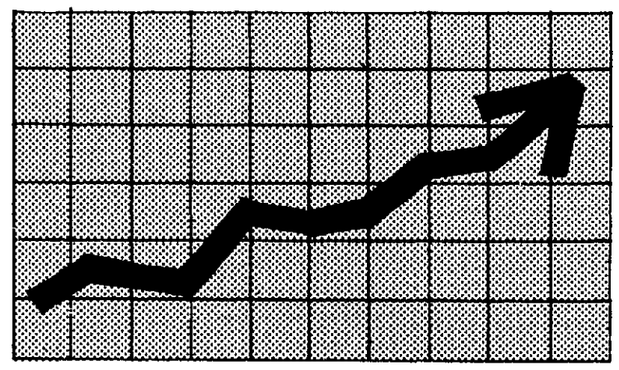

Soviet diplomats have indicated they want SALT negotiations to go forward in a businesslike, no-propaganda fashion—but they have not said yes or no to the U.S. offer nor have they made a counter-proposal.

Washington and Moscow have avoided injecting into SALT their quarrels over other issues ranging from the Mideast to Southeast Asia.

If SALT does produce a treaty, it would be the most significant U.S.-Soviet disarmament pact of the nuclear age. And because SALT deals with basic security weapons of the Big 2 atomic powers, the negotiating may take years.

MR. BUMPERS IS WRONG!

EMPLOYMENT IN ARKANSAS IS UP NOT DOWN!

But Since He Brought It Up...Let's Look At Some Facts That Bumpers and J. Bill Becker Have Known All Along...

Mrs. Leona Troxell, administrator of the state Employment Security Division said Monday that "unemployment is 5.5 percent and not 9 percent as charged by Dale Bumpers, compared with the 5.1 percent national average. Misleading information damaged the state's economy..."

"Unemployment was higher in 1961, 1962, 1963 and eight months of 1964," she said. "Little Rock's employment picture, compared with other cities in the U.S. is good and stands at 3.7 percent, which is one of the lowest for major American cities."

Victor Mollo, one of our favorite Englishmen, has just produced a new book entitled, "How Good Is Your Bridge?"

It is done in the form of 150 questions on situations in play. We will get around to a lot of hands from this book in November. In the meanwhile, here is one of his very simple problems that does cover two points in play.

Declarer draws trumps. Which trump should he play from his hand?

The answer is the ace. If trumps break 2-1, declarer can't lose a trump trick. If East has three trumps, declarer can't do anything about it. If West holds all three, the ace play will give South a proven finesse against the queen.

Victor's next question is: "Can South make his contract against any combination of cards, assuming he doesn't have to lose a trump?"

The answer to this question is, of course, "Yes."

The hand is a classic example of a simple elimination play. Once declarer draws trumps, he runs off the last two hearts and throws the defense in with a diamond. East and West can take two diamond tricks but after that it won't matter who wins the second diamond or who holds the queen of spades.

If a heart or diamond is led, South will ruff in one hand and discard a spade from the other one. If a spade is led, South is given a free finesse against the spade queen and will make three spade tricks automatically.

Victor did not bother with the bidding to reach five clubs. We have put in our own and want to add the comment that any pair that gets to exactly five clubs with these North-South cards are mighty fine bidders.

46th Day of UAW Strike of General Motors

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers and General Motors Corp. entered bargaining today to a 46-day-old strike and announced a news blackout, the traditional sign serious talks were expected.

The union said it had established a "special subcommittee to undertake intensive probing sessions to fully explore and discuss the major national issues that now separate the parties."

The UAW struck General Motors facilities in the United States and Canada at midnight Sept. 14.

Little progress has been reported in the national talks since that time. Meetings through the weekend were scheduled under the blackout rules.

"There will be no public comment concerning the progress of these discussions," the union said.

The union's special subcommittee will be headed by UAW President Leonard Woodcock.

GM's top negotiator, Earl R. Bramblett, is expected to head the company's delegation.

"We welcome this probing of all the outstanding national issues," Bramblett said today. "We are prepared to meet as many hours as necessary to do this.

"We are urging our plant management to further intensify local negotiations in an effort to conclude local settlements," Bramblett added.

A total of 58 settlements on at-the-plant level had been reached by the time the new national bargaining effort was announced. That left 97 to be settled in the United State and seven in Canada. At the beginning of the strike Woodcock said, and the company agreed, a majority of the important local-level agreements must be approved before a new national pact can be written.

A union spokesman said 24 of the settlements were at key plants leaving 30 settlements in the important sites.

The major national issues revolved around wages, cost of living protection and retirement.

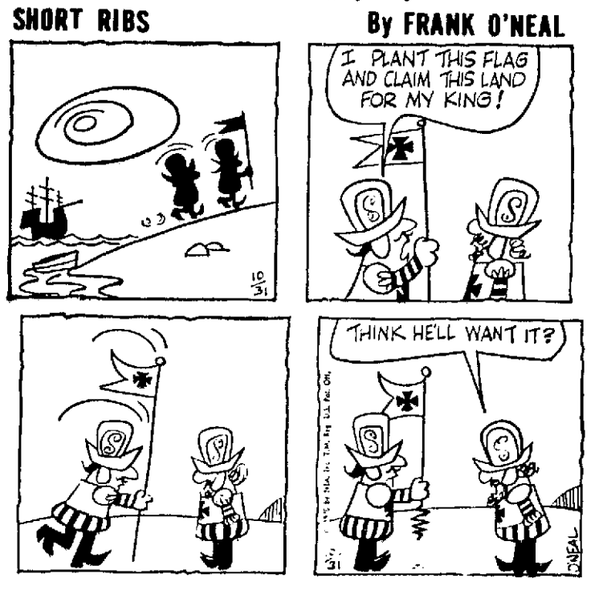

In its last offer, GM said it would boost the average workers' wage of $4.02 an hour by 38 cents in the first year of a three-year contract. The union demands 61.5 cents.

QUICK QUIZ

Q—How did the last car on a freight train come to be called a "caboose"?

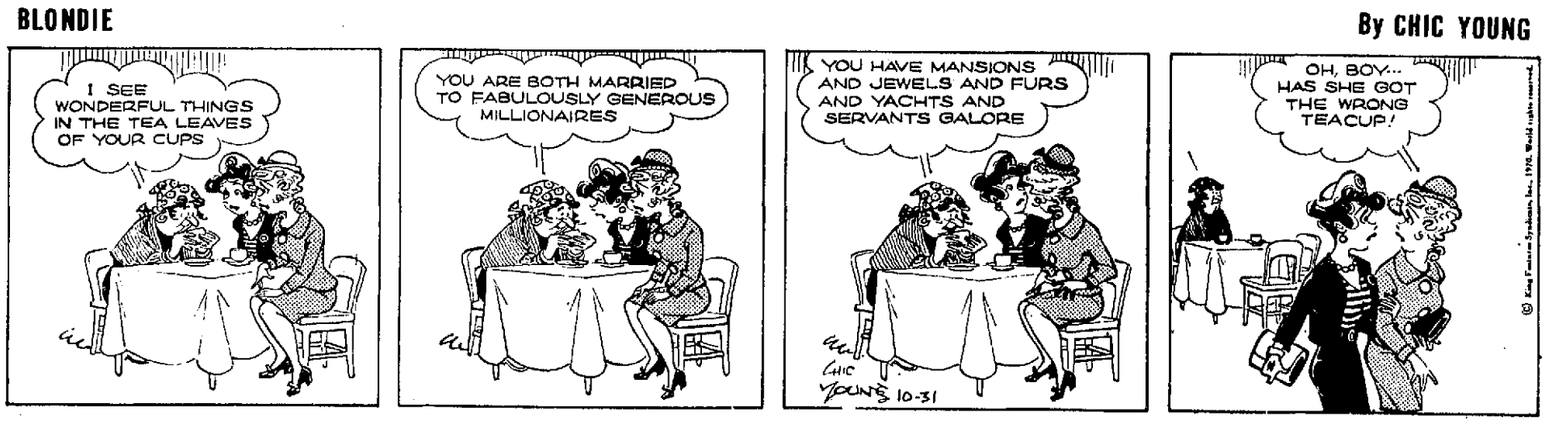

A—The word comes from "kabuys," which originally meant the cook's quarters on a ship. Freight trainmen sometimes cook in their "cabooses," so the change from ship to train is not far-fetched.

A—Tempera is a painting medium that uses the yolks and whites of eggs, water and dry powder pigments.

Camden Takes Hope With 14-13 Score

By BILL MOORE
Star Sportswriter

Unable to stop a last ditch drive, the Hope Bobcats fell victim to the Camden Panthers, 14-13, in a real conference battle for second place.

Hopes record fell to 6-3 for the year while Camden shows a 7-2 slate and sole possession of second place in the 4AA West race.

Taking the opening kickoff, the Bobcats started from their own 40, and began a successful drive on the first series with the ball.

A 19 yard pass from quarterback Ronnie Massanelli to Gary Don Jones helped move the ball into Camden territory and six plays later, moving the ball successfully on the ground, Massanelli followed center Randy Wright into the end zone.

Tim White's kick split the upright and Hope had a quick 7-0 lead with 8:33 left in the opening period.

Hope then held and after getting the ball back, the Bobcats had to fight their way out of deep territory, punting to the 30 yard line.

Both teams played on even terms until the clock showed 5:17 left in the half. On a first down for Camden, Rusty Quillin intercepted a Panther pass and returned it to the Camden 33 yard line.

Four plays later, as Massanelli was being rushed hard, he found Buddy Ingram on the Camden three and Ingram took a beautifully thrown pass over his shoulder and fell into the end zone between three Camden defenders.

Whites kick wide to the right, but the Bobcats had a 13-0 lead with 3:57 left, and that score stood at halftime.

To many, it looked as if the Bobcats would romp, but as it later proved things turned out different.

Camden came out for revenge the second half as they took the kickoff and drove 54 yards in seven plays for the score. The final yardage came on a 23 yard jaunt by Ken Morris around right end.

Thomas Dansby kicked the extra point and with 8:53 left in the third segment Hope's lead was trimmed to 13-7.

Toward the end of the third period the Bobcat defensive front four put on a good rush causing a quick pass and that resulted in an interception by Winston Franks with 40 seconds showing left in the period.

With the ball now resting on the Camden 17, it looked as if Hope could all but tuck it away with a touchdown. However, Bobcats gave up the ball at the 10.

Now in the last quarter of play, Camden began a drive from their own 31, consuming time and yardage. Passes kept the Panthers alive to the five yard line and with just four seconds left Camden struck.

With a couple of blockers leading the way, Morris rambled around right end for the score to knot it up and Dansby kick gave the Panthers their one point margin of victory.

So now the Bobcats will face the Nashville Scrappers, away, in the last game of the season and at Hope High School for the Seniors.

Warns of Vicious Tricks on Halloween

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Parents, police and civic groups are on the alert today for vicious Halloween tricks on youngsters—such as poisoned candy and apples spiked with razor blades — which were found in many areas last year.

As the first reports of such incidents this year came in, police warned: Don't let children eat any Halloween treat without taking a good look at it first.

In Phoenix, Ariz., police and narcotics agents said there also is a danger that treats might be spiked with drugs.

They issued repeated warnings to parents not to let children eat candy unless enclosed in the original factory wrapping. The officers said fears of drugs were sparked by reports that large amounts of Seconal tablets were circulating in the Phoenix area.

Police warnings were accompanied by newspaper advertisements in Syracuse, N.Y., and Indianapolis, Ind.

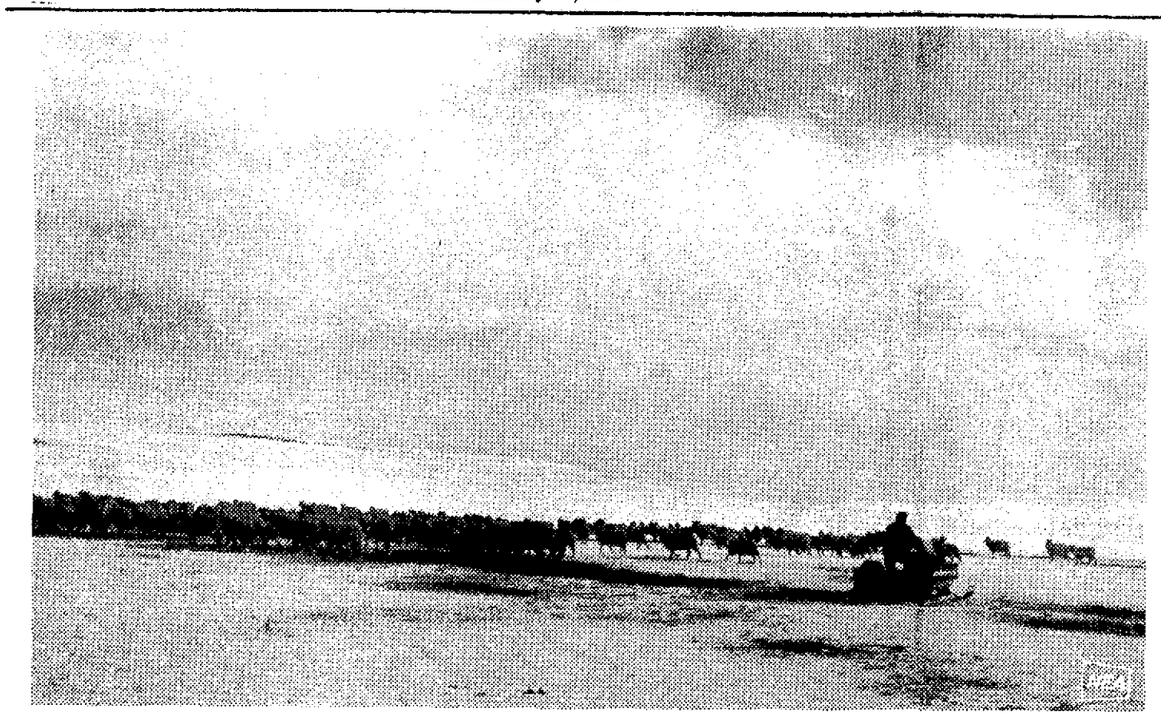

To combat both the menace to trick-or-treating children — and the possible problem of vandalism by some of them — hundreds of Jaycee members in Memphis, Tenn., planned to take to the streets tonight in a mass "safety patrol."

They will have no police power, but were equipping their cars with two-way radio systems to call police if necessary.

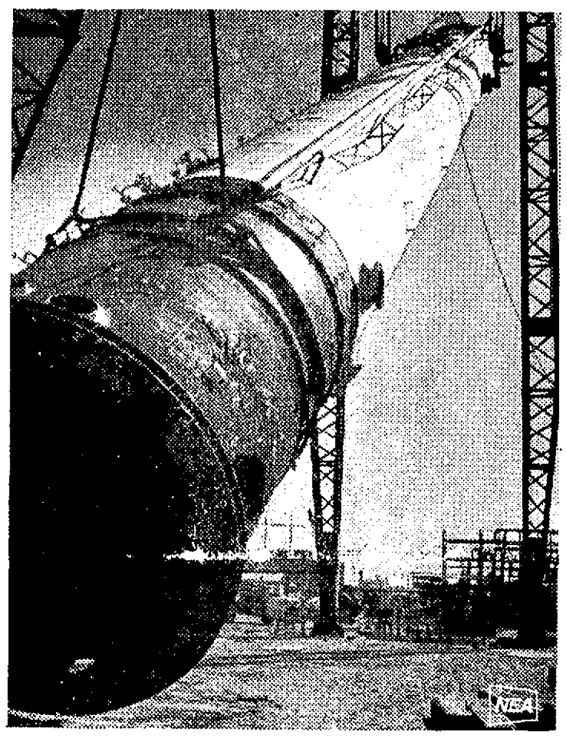

In Waukegan, Ill., Friday night, a child bit on a Halloween treat and found a razor blade. Donald Crossman, 9, told his mother after 3½ hours of trick-or-treating: "There's something in this candy bar."

Opening it, Mrs. Mary Ann Crosman, 31, found the broken, double-edged safety razor blade. Her son was unhurt. The blade stuck between his teeth.

Buffalo, N.Y., police also reported a similar incident when an unidentified child's mother accidentally dropped a Halloween apple, which broke open to reveal a razor blade.

HERDING SHEEP in Wyoming, this rancher has replaced his horse with a snowmobile. The versatile recreation vehicle is being used more and more for business, according to Massey-Ferguson, replacing or augmenting trucks and horses when the going gets tough.

ONE OF THE LARGEST units ever welded into one piece, this 450-ton, 206-foot propylene column has 11,000 feet of welding, required 1,750 X-ray test photos and is made of steel plate 1⅝ inches thick. Five specially made freight cars were used to haul the AMF-built column from Shreveport, La., to Odessa, Tex.

Drugs Use in Vietnam Is Concerning

By WILLIAM BARTON
Ascia Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. army said today that 89 American soldiers may have died from overdoses of drugs in South Vietnam during the past 10 months.

Expressing "grave concern" about the problem, the Army said 25 drug abuse deaths were confirmed through autopsies and that doctors suspected overdoses caused 64 other fatalieies.

The Army also disclosed that 746 troops were admitted to medical facilities in drug-related cases through September, compared with 527 cases during all of 1969. Last year, there were 16 confirmed drug deaths, the Army said.

The Army statement came after Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., issued a statement in Washington Thursday saying investigators of his Juvenile Delinquency subcommittee had found that GI deaths in Vietnam from overdoses of drugs had skyrocketed and that military leaders had failed to clamp down on drug buse.

The Army announcement in Saigon acknowledged a "significant increase in incidents of drug abuse," but said also that a new and more accurate reporting procedure went into effect last Aug. 1. Prior to that time, some drug-related cases may have been listed on medical records under other categories of illness, the Army said.

The army said, however, that the new procedures alone could not account for the increase. The announcement also blamed more widespread usage of hard drugs such as heroin for the higher toll.

To alleviate the drug problem, the Army said, new programs are being inaugurated which involve improvement in law enforcement, better educational programs and more intensive medical and psychiatric treatment.

Assures U.S. Missiles Egypt-manned

BEIRUT (AP) — President Anwar Sadat of Egypt was quoted today as assuring the United States that Egypt's SAM2 and SAM3 missile bases in the Suez Canal area are operated exclusively by 800 Egyptian experts, not by Russians.

"Our men specialized in the Soviet Union in operating the missiles and have mastered the intricate operation from A to Z," Sadat was quoted as saying by the pro-Egyptian Beirut magazine Al Hawadess.

The magazine's publisher, Selim Lozi, reported from Cairo that Sadat gave this assurance during a meeting last month with U.S. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Elliot L. Richardson. Richardson met Sadat in Cairo after President Gamal Abdel Nasser's funeral, at which he represented President Nixon.

Airlines in Grip of Rising Costs

GENEVA, Switzerland (AP) The 12 largest United States airlines, in the grip of a rising cost inflation and major dips in traffic, may lose up to $200 million in 1970, their financially worst year in history, Trans World Airlines President F.C. Wiser said today.

He urged immediate fare increases and also proposed a moratorium on new route authorizations by the American Civil Aeronautics Board plus curbs on the supplemental airline industry as key parts of an effort to bring economic relief.

Leary to Embrace New Religion

CAIRO (AP) — Dr. Timothy Leary, self-exiled American advocate of LSD and marijuana, now says he is going to embrace the Islamic religion and make his home in Algeria.

Leary, who fled to Africa from a California prison where he was serving a sentence for marijuana possession, gave this version of his plans today in an interview for the Cairo newspaper Al Ahram.

Earlier, he had declared he planned to make his way back to the United States in disguise and take part in a Black Panther party demonstration Nov. 3 in New Haven, Conn.

NATO Has More Tanks Than Known About

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and its NATO allies have about 5,000 more tanks in Europe than top-level Pentagon officials knew about, The Washington Post says.

Existence of the tanks was discovered by the Pentagon during an administrative review of NATO security during the past four weeks, the Post said in a story in today's newspaper.

The tanks include about 1,200 modern American M60s, equally modern German Leopards and British Centurions and about 500 older U.S. M24s and M48s, the Post said.

The Post said the tanks had been designated as reserves in case of an attack and were parked along the autobahn in West Germany.

It said there are not enough standby crews to man the armored force and the tanks are highly vulnerable to air attack in their present position.

Return or Be Expelled, Students Told

WABBASEKA, Ark. (AP) — The superintendent of the Wabbaseka School District says students who did not return to class Thursday after serving a two-week suspension will be expelled for the remainder of the school year.

Joe Simpson made the statement Thursday night and said he would begin sending letters to the students today informing them of the situation.

Simpson said he suspended about 200 students in grades 7 through 12 from the all-black J. S. Walker School on Oct. 14, but that he did not know how many students would be expelled. When he issued the suspensions, Simpson said that any student who did not return to class by Oct. 29 would be expelled.

Simpson said a "few" of the suspended students returned to classes Thursday, but that he did not know the exact number.

Simpson said a student would have five days from receipt of the letter to produce a "reasonable excuse" for his absence. He said the student would not be admitted to classes without the excuse.

"I have talked with attorneys and they have advised us to go ahead with our plans," Simpson said. "They've had a two-week suspension to think it over."

The two-week suspensions stemmed from three days of protests and walkouts at the Walker school over the dismissal of Asive Thomas, popular physical education instructor and head basketball coach.

Thomas and Mrs. Beatrice Sanders, a social studies teacher, received letters Oct. 7 notifying them they would be dismissed in two weeks. Thomas and Mrs. Sanders' salaries were contracted under provision of Title I if the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act and Simpson said they were dismissed because of a $25,000 cut in the school district's Title — appropriation.

Five days after the protests began, Simpson issued a public notice that students who failed to attend classes the following day would be expelled for two weeks and that those not in class after two weeks would be suspended for the remainder of the school year.

Parents of the children have vowed that the students will boycott classes until the grievances of teachers, parents and students are satisfied by the school administration.

Post Office for Mena

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Post Office Department has awarded a contract for a new office building in Mena to Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McDaniel of Jonesboro.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., made the announcement Thursday and said the office will be built at a cost of $158,000.

Mrs. Nixon to Get an Award

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Richard M. Nixon has been named for the first annual award of Rehabilitation International and will go to Chicago Nov. 6 to receive it.

Announcing this Thursday, the White House said the First Lady was being honored for "outstanding contributions to the cause of volunteer activities."

Rehabilitation International is an organization of groups working on behalf of the disabled.

3 Senators Have to Win to Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Unless three Republican senators serving by appointment win their election bids Tuesday, they won't be in the Senate when Congress returns Nov. 16.

For Sens. Ted Stevens of Alaska, Ralph T. Smith of Illinois and Charles E. Goodell of New York, defeat would put an abrupt end to their tenure.

Thirty-five Senate seats are at stake in the election, but except for Stevens, Smith and Goodell, all the incumbents were elected for terms that do not expire until Jan. 2, 1971.

Each of the trio of GOP senators was appointed to fill vacancies "until a successor is elected." If they are defeated, their opponents will be able to take their seats on Nov. 16.

Other newly elected senators will not take their places in the Senate until the start of the 92nd Congress in January.

How many "lame-ducks" will be sitting in the Senate during the closing weeks of the present 91st Congress depends on the outcome of the election. But there will be at least five whose successors will be elected Tuesday.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., failed to win renomination and four other senators, John J. williams, R-Del., Spessard L. holland, D-Fla., Eugene J. mcCarthy, D-Minn., and Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, are not seeking re-election.

Stevens is running to complete the term expiring Jan. 2, 1973, of the late Democratic senator from Alaska, E. L. Bartlett, to whose seat he was appointed by former Gov. Walter Hickel, now secretary of the interior.

Smith is seeking election for the balance of the term, expiring Jan. 2, 1975, of the late Senate GOP Leader Everett M. dirksen. And Goodell is running both for a full six-year term and the remainder of the term, expiring Jan. 2, 1971, of the late Robert F. Kennedy.

Tex Watson Declared Insane

By LINDA DEUTSCH

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charles "Tex" Watson, accused of leading two murder missions in which Sharon Tate and six others died, has been declared insane and in danger of dying.

A judge ordered Watson committed to a state mental hospital and said Friday he would not be tried until he regains his sanity.

Dr. Marcus Crahan, one of three psychiatrists reporting on the tall, lean Texan, said: "Mr. Watson in the last week has become listless, flaccid and makes no movements . . . His lips are pursed. He is being fed by nasal tube. He is . . . becoming a vegetable. He is rapidly reverting to a fetal state . . . which would be rapidly fatal."

The insanity ruling by Superior Court Judge George Dell came at a hearing across the hall from a courtroom where Charles Manson and three women are being tried on murder-conspiracy charges for the deaths of Miss Tate and six other persons in August 1969.

Trial witnesses have described Watson, 24, as chief lieutenant of Manson's hippie-style "family." Watson fought extradition from McKinney, Tex., until after the trial of the others began, and was returned here Sept. 11 to stand trial separately.

Gaunt but clean-cut looking, the 6-foot-2 former high school athlete has made several court appearances since then, always remaining silent, his mouth agape, occasionally smiling vacantly and staring into space.

Officials told Judge Dell that Watson was in serious condition in the jail infirmary where his weight had dropped from 160 pounds to 110. Jail spokesmen said, "There is a serious possibility he could die from malnutrition."

Two other reporting psychiatrists told Dell that Watson shows signs of schizophrenia, is "definitely a suicide possibility," and suffers from a catatonic tqe of menwl ilvss that requires immediate treatment as a lifesaving measure.

Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger issued a statement saying his office concedes that Watson is insane now, but does not concede that he was insane at the time of the killings.

Younger said that if Watson regains sanity, criminal proceedings will be resumed.

Judge ell ordered Watson removed immediately to Atascadero State Hospital and declared, "He is not capable of understanding at this time the nature of the charges against him. I feel it is imperative that he be placd in a facility where he may be able to regain his sanity."

Must Increase Students of Medicine

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The number of students entering U.S. medical schools must be increased 50 per cent by 1978 to avert a "crisis in health care personnel," the chairman of the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education says.

Clark Kerr, former president of the University of California, said that if commission recommendations made public Thursday aren't followed "there will be continuing inflation in health care costs."

The commission recommended in its report to the annual meeting of the American Medical College that the number of entering medical students be raised from the present 10,800 to 16,400 by 1978.

The 18-member commission also recommended cutting training time for doctors and dentists from eight years to six years, opening 126 "area health education centers" across the country and building nine additional medical schools in the United States.

Rothschild Heads Group

LONDON (AP) — Lord Rothschild of the British banking family has been named head of a newly created policy review body which will advise ministers of the Conservative government.

An announcement Thursday said he would take up the post next week upon retirement as research director for the Royal Shell group of companies.

Lt. Governor Actually Two Man Race

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Quickly now, name all three candidates for lieutenant governor:

Dr. Bob C. Riley of Arkadelphia for the Democrats.

State Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock for the Republicans.

And. . . who?

Hubert Blanton of Hughes for the American Party in Arkansas, that's who.

Three candidates are running, but the race is clearly a contest between only two, Riley and Cockrill.

Blanton, 51, a farmer and businessman, has obviously been short of campaign finances and has been much less active than his two foes.

Cockrill, 45, got 49,869 to 6,598 for Gerald Williams of North Little Rock in the Aug. 25 Republican preferential primary.

Riley, also 45, led a field of six in the Democratic preferential primary, then won nomination in a Sept. 8 runoff with James H. Harrell of Russellville.

The runoff total for Riley was 268,930, for Harrell 178,602.

Blanton was nominated at his party's convention and did not have a primary election opponent.

An ordained Baptist minister, Riley is readily identifiable by a black patch he wears to cover an eye that was injured in World War II combat on Guam.

For four years, Riley was a state representative from Pulaski County, served as an alderman and mayor of Arkadelphia, and has been parliamentarian of the state House of Representatives.

Cockrill, running what is clearly the best-financed campaign for lieutenant governor, has made his face familiar in many homes through a flood of advertising, particularly on television.

He has been a legislator for 14 years, served as Speaker of the House of Representatives, and was Democratic party majority leader in the House until this year when he jumped to the Republican party.

The Cockrill switch was viewed last Spring as a sign that he had been dubbed heir apparent to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who has fed substantial sums to the ex-Democrat's campaign.

Riley and Cockrill have proposed expansion of the office of lieutenant governor to make the post more valuable to the public.

There are few differences between the philosophies of the men, at least as presented during the campaign. The two of them differ generally, however, with the positions Blanton has taken.

Blanton, in his few campaign appearances, has stood by the American party position opposing the proposed new constitution while Cockrill and Riley support the proposed charter.

The winner will succeed Lt. Gov. Maurice L. "Footsie" Britt, a Republican who did not seek re-election. Britt has been designated campaign manager for Rockefeller.

The lieutenant governor is the initial successor to the office of governor if the gubernatorial incumbent vacates the higher office.

The salary for lieutenant governor is $2,500 and the chief function is to preside over the state Senate, where he may cast a vote only in the case of a tie.

Nixon Says Election Most Important

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
AP Political Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon, calling next Tuesday's election "probably the most important and decisive Senate election" in American history, has appealed to the nation for a vote of confidence in himself and his programs.

"Vote for those men who will vote for the President rather than against him so that the President can keep his promises to you, the American people," Nixon told 8,000 Republican partisans in Anaheim Convention Center and television viewers across the nation Friday night.

The Republican National Committee purchased network time for a telecast of the speech in the wake of Thursday night's incident at San Jose, Calif., in which rocks, bottles and eggs were hurled at the President.

Nixon had said "the time has come to take the gloves off" and that he would discuss in the Anaheim speech "what America must do to end this wave of violence and terrorism." But he gave a toned-down version of the same basic speech he has been delivering in political swings about the nation.

The President said, in referring to the San Jose incident, "It's time to draw the line" against violent demonstrators and that the Republican candidates for whom he has spoken have taken a strong stand against "this kind of lawlessness and this kind of violence."

Nixon appealed to voters to "stand with these men who understand the issues."

After the speech, Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Nixon will amplify his remarks on the San Jose incident today in a speech at Phoenix, first stop on a four-state, windup political swing to Arizona, New Mexico, Nevada and Utah.

Nixon's speech received an enthusiastic reception from the party faithful who waved small American flags and held up multicolored signs, including ones that proclaimed "No Rocks in Anaheim" and "We're for Nixon, Not Rocks." Both of these were held aloft behind Nixon, and in view of the television cameras.

In contrast to many Nixon speeches, there were no hecklers and demonstrators inside the hall. Outside, a few dozen demonstrators, some opposing the Vietnam war and others urging military victory, paraded on a sidewalk. Nixon flew the 35 miles from the Western White House by helicopter, landing in a parking lot out of sight of the protesters.

The Anaheim appearance was designed principally to bolster the re-election campaign of Sen. George Murphy. The Field Poll released Friday in California newspapers showed that Democratic nominee John V. Tunney has lengthened his lead over Murphy in recent weeks from two to seven percentage points.

Murphy introduced Nixon, saying "this is the greatest honor I have ever experienced," then blinking noticeably as the President heaped praise on him.

The program was opened by Gov. Ronald Reagan, a strong favorite for re-election over Democrat Jess Unruh. Reagan said "we see the threat of anarchy in this land" and sharply attacked Tunney, saying "a young man lusting for high office has forsaken decency and honor."

Sees Better GOP Chance in 1972

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican capture of the Senate majority is "beyond what you ought to expect," Herb Klein, President Nixon's chief spokesman said today.

Klein, White House director of communications, said, "I think there's a better chance" of winning both the House and Senate in 1972.
